INGRID KLIMKE UNCHALLENGED LEADER OF THE DRESSAGE TEST

Day two of the CCIO4* - NC – S Test Event held at the Pratoni del Vivaro leading up to the Eventing FEI World Championships™ 2022 (September 15-22), marked the end of the dressage test today.

Once again, like yesterday, the best performance came from Germany's Ingrid Klimke riding EQUISTROs Siena Just Do It (22.7 negative points) which meant she overtook herself having finished first yesterday riding SAP Hale Bob OLD (24,8).

In the final ranking for the dressage, Klimke is followed by France's Maxime Livio (Api du Libaire, 25.4) and New Zealand's Jonelle Price (Faerie Magnifico, 25.9).

The best Italian was Pietro Grandis (Scuderia 1918 Future, 29.3), who is now lying in 15th place for the CCIO4*-NC-S, is now the leader in the ranking for the Italian Eventing Championships.

Grandis is very closely followed by Paolo Torlonia (Bambino de l'Ilatte, 29.5) and Mattia Luciani (Tresor de la Loge, 31.8).
